

Gratitude Is Growing

Gratitude is growing
Like a pumpkin on a vine,
It starts off small and hidden,
Then it stretches, soft and kind.

Each “thank you” is a raindrop,
Each smile a ray of sun
And soon your heart’s a garden
Where kindness starts to run.

So water it with patience,
With gentle words you say,
And let your thankful garden
Bloom brighter every day.